The name and address of the incorporator of this corporation is:

Sara Brang
18990 Westby Lane
Waterville, MN 56096

ARTICLE IV PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or such other provisions of Minnesota or federal law as may from time to time be applicable, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under said section 501(c)(3). This corporation shall not be operated for profit, but shall be operated exclusively for charitable purposes. The specific purpose of this corporation is to:

- A. To serve as a nonprofit recovery community organization including without limitation, providing support to individuals in recovery from substance abuse disorders; providing education to individuals, families and communities regarding the different pathways to recovery; providing resources and meeting spaces to individual support groups; and providing peer-based recovery services to individuals in recovery.
- B. To enter into obligations or contracts and do any act incidental to the transaction of its organizational goals or expedient to the purposes stated in its Articles of Organization.

- C. To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, own, hold, buy, sell, convey, lease, mortgage or encumber real estate or other property, personal or mixed.
- D. To engage in such other activities not inconsistent with the activities enumerated above as the organization might from time to time deem advisable.
- E. To borrow money and to issue bonds, debentures or obligations of this organization from time to time for any of the purposes hereof and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise.
- F. To solicit gifts, grants, and contributions to it from all persons for use solely in furtherance of the purposes in this section, including without limitation, making direct grants to organizations exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.
- G. To do any and all things reasonably necessary or incident to accomplish said purposes.

ARTICLE V RESTRICTIONS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article IV hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI DURATION

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE VII MEMBERS

This corporation shall have no capital stock but shall have one class of members whose voting and other rights and interests shall be equal. The conditions and qualifications for membership in this corporation shall be as provided for in the Bylaws of this corporation. Members of this corporation shall have no personal liability for corporate obligations.

ARTICLE VIII DIRECTORS

The business and affairs of this corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. All directors are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences. The terms of office of the directors shall be fixed as provided in the Bylaws of this corporation.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The organization will indemnify any director or officer made a party, or threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigation (other than one by or in the right of the organization to procure a judgment in its favor, brought to impose a liability on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his or her capacity as director or officer of the organization, or as director, officer, employee or agent of any other entity when he or she served at the request of the organization) against judgments, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such person is either successful in his or her defense or if the proceeding is terminated by settlement, and if such person acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the organization, and in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The Board of Directors shall have the sole discretion to determine whether amounts for which a director or officer seeks indemnification were properly incurred and whether such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the organization and whether, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he or she had no reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The Board of Directors shall make such determination by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding.

ARTICLE X DISSOLUTION

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of this corporation, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, or by operation of law, the remaining property and assets of this corporation shall be distributed for one or more of the exempt purposes for which this corporation is formed, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

These Articles may be amended at any time and from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors then in office, at a meeting for which notice of the meeting and the proposed amendment have been given.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto executed these Articles of Incorporation this 23 day of September, 2023.
